Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Linda Jirsa, who is retiring from the state of South Dakota after 23 years of service; and,

Whereas, Linda graduated from Burke High School in Burke, South Dakota, in 1968 and from Secretarial Training at Southern State College in Springfield, South Dakota, in 1969; and,

Whereas, Linda has been employed by the state of South Dakota for 23 years, having worked as a Psychology Aid I and a library clerk; and,

Whereas, In 1994, Linda transferred to the Driver Licensing program to serve her fellow South Dakotans as a telephone representative and senior secretary for 21 years; and,

Whereas, Linda has distinguished herself by her service to the state of South Dakota and the Driver Licensing program by her commitment to excellence, loyalty, and dedication to duty; and,

Whereas, On May 8, 2016, Linda is retiring to spend more time with her husband, Randy, and family and will be missed by her friends and co-workers within the Department of Public Safety; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 13, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
